CIRCULATION 1780

ACCOMAC COURT-HOUSE, VA.

SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1885

LOCAL NEWS.

Dr. Geo. T. Scarborough has been confined to his room for the last two weeks by a severe attack of rheumatism.

Ex-President Arthur accompanied by his private secretary and a few other friends, was a passenger over our railroad last Saturday.

Mr. Geo. T. Ghadding, who has the reputation of having made a faithful and efficient officer, is a candidate again for the May election.

A barrel of oysters, eight filling the barrel, were sold to George A. Raynor, Captain of the steamer Eastern Shore, by Mr. W. T. Ames of Nassawadox, Northampton county, last Monday.

Capt. George G. Savage, agent of the Virginia Fire and Marine Insurance Company, will spend several days in Accomac during next week and attend our county court also, on a business visit.

Mr. L. W. Childrey, general insurance agent, of several first-class companies, will be present at the next term of our county court, to give his attention to all matters in his line of business.

Messrs. Finney & Co. Finney's wharf, have just received a choice lot of cypress shingles, well tinned and fencing material direct from the mill in North Carolina, which they offer for sale at "close" prices.

Mr. Robert Lilliston, an industrious farmer and highly respected by all who knew him, died at his residence near Drummondtown, last Sunday, after a short illness of pneumonia aged about 52 years.

Capt. Abel T. Ashby of Oceanhook, Northampton county, made the first shipment of radishes, two boxes from the Eastern Shore this season. They were sent to Baltimore by the steamer Eastern Shore on the 7th of April.

Messrs. Boggs & Water of Boggsville, have just received a full cargo of cypress lumber, shingles, railing, pailing, well tinned, laths, &c., and offer them for sale at bottom. They have also on hand for sale Pocumoke super phosphate.

Mrs. Maggie S. Reynolds, wife of John R. Reynolds of Baltimore and daughter of John R. Floyd, of Belle Haven, died on the 2nd inst. She is described as a very lovable lady, and her friends are sadly afflicted at their loss.

The pay-car of the N. Y. P. & N. Railroad Company was wrecked at Hayford's millpond, a short distance below roomoke City, on Tuesday morning. A brakeman was seriously injured, but everybody else escaped. The engine was badly damaged.

Appointments of Rev. J. H. Amis, Presiding Elder, M. E. Church, South-Eastville circuit, Capeville, April 18 and 19.

Dorchester circuit, Bethlehem, April 25 and 26.

South Dorchester, May 2 and 3.

Dorset mission, Milton, May 3 and 4.

Gregory, the "Rebel banjoist," delighted our people with an entertainment at the court house on Thursday night. He advertised to be at Locustville, Monday night next; Bradford's Neck, Wednesday night and at Zion school house on Friday Night. This evening he will introduce a patent medicine he is selling on the public square at Drummondtown and show its curative properties.

About three hundred citizens of Accomac and Northampton availed themselves of the reduced fare over the railroad last Wednesday, to visit Pocumoke, and attend the circus. The trip thrifter was a delightful one, but several complained on their return trip of being discommoded by the colored people. They thought, a car ought to have been set apart for their accommodation.

The Board of Supervisors at meeting on April 18th, levied for county school purposes for scholastic year ending July 31st, 1886, the sum of ten cents on every hundred dollars worth of property; and for district school purposes for same year same sum in each magisterial district. The Board allowed each account presented properly chargeable to the county, and directed warrants to be issued on county treasurer for payment of same out of county levy for years 1884-5.

Mr. J. A. Tatem, commission merchant of Philadelphia, made a business trip through our county last week. The gentleman was born in this county, but for many years has done business in Philadelphia, and is now one of the live commission merchants of that place. The reputation of the firm J. A. Tatem & Co., of which he is the head is first-class, pecuniarily and in all other respects. Mr. J. W. Godwin who is associated with him is also of this county, and a man of sterling worth. We heartily commend the firm to our farmers.
